(Lake Charles, LA)—Family Foundation of Southwest Louisiana (FFSWLA) accepts a $5,000 endowment from Capital One Bank in support of nonprofit sector development.

FFSWLA promotes excellence in the nonprofit sector through training, education, and leadership. Training opportunities include quarterly workshops and executive roundtables for nonprofit staff and volunteers.

“At Capital One Bank, we strongly believe in supporting the communities where we live and work,” said Greg Webb, Capital One Bank Lake Charles Area President. “We know the Family Foundation of Southwest Louisiana shares our passion, and we are honored to present this contribution to them. Their work in the community is an inspiration.”

The Family Foundation of Southwest Louisiana serves as the endowment and philanthropic arm of Family & Youth, connecting donors to the priorities that enhance the quality of family and community life for generations to come. Investing in families secures the future of our community. For more information call 337-436-9533 or log on to www.fyca.org.

Family & Youth is a family service organization established in 1970 to serve children, youth and families in SWLA. Currently, Family and Youth, a United Way Agency, operates The Counseling Center, The Leadership Center for Youth, Autism Support Alliance, The Children’s Advocacy Center, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), Performance EAP, and Human Services Response Institute (HSRI).
