

NEWS RELEASE

ALCOA Carbon Products Supports Family & Youth's Children's Advocacy Center

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Julio Galan, 436-9533

Maria Alcantara Faul, Family & Youth Vice President Development & Philanthropy; Steven Thompson, ALCOA Plant Manager; Erika Simon, Children's Advocacy Center, Senior Coordinator

ALCOA recently donated funds and manpower for the renovation of the Children's Advocacy Center, a program of Family & Youth Counseling Agency (Family & Youth). The project assisted in making the facility more "child- friendly and welcoming." ALCOA made a donation of $1,500 towards the project, and employees volunteered manpower to implement the renovations.

The Children's Advocacy Center of Family & Youth is a child-friendly facility designed to coordinate services for children who have been reported as sexually or severely physically abused.

Family & Youth, a United Way Agency, believes that all individuals possess the ability to solve their own challenges and live full and healthy lives when support is available. It is the mission of Family & Youth to provide affordable and professional support through programs and services dedicated to the advocacy, counseling, and education for the people of Southwest Louisiana. Our effort and commitment to building family values will guarantee a stable and stronger community. For experienced professional assistance, contact Family & Youth at 337-436-9533.

###

Family & Youth
220 Louie Street, Lake Charles, LA
337-436-9533 www.fyca.org